This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

GENERAL PLAN.

In the following Catalogue the books are first arranged alphabetically under the names of their authors, so far as given or known; and these titles are also occasionally repeated, together with those of anonymous works under the most prominent word of the subject.

This alphabetical Catalogue is followed by an Index, in which most of the titles are classified according to their subjects under ten different general heads; so that the inquirer, who knows either the name of the author of the book sought for, or its general nature, will be able easily to ascertain its number—without asking the Librarian.

REGULATIONS.

1. Library hours from 1½ to 2 P. M., when no one can be admitted behind the railing except the Librarian and his assistants.
2. Three volumes only may stand charged to the same name.
3. No person may draw books upon the name of another, but by his written permission.
4. Books must, in all cases be charged, before they are taken from the room.
5. Encyclopædias and unbound Periodicals, may be retained from the Library one week only; all other books, two weeks, except when recalled.
6. Books may be renewed once only, before returning to the shelves, and for this purpose must be brought into the Library.
7. Persons returning books, must see them credited by the Librarian, or they will be held responsible.
8. Smoking in the Library, is not allowed.
9. Members of other Societies in College, are allowed the same privileges and are subject to the same rules as Calliopeans.
10. No book belonging to the Library, may be taken out of the town of New Haven.

PENALTIES.

1. Persons retaining books, for a longer time than above specified, shall be fined three cents a volume for every day of such retention.

2. When the books have been recalled by notice, the above fine shall be increased to ten cents a volume.

3. The fine for taking books from the Library uncharged, is Five Dollars, with an addition of ten cents a day, until paid.

4. If books are injured or lost, the person to whom they are charged, shall be held responsible.

5. Persons incurring a fine, will not be permitted to draw books until the fine is paid.

PREFACE.

THE Library of the Society of BROTHERS IN UNITY is located in the north wing of the new College Library Building, and numbers, at the present time, 9140 volumes.

The oldest Catalogue which we have seen, (probably the oldest in existence,) is a manuscript originally prepared by Judge Baldwin of this city, and by him lately presented to the Library. Judge Baldwin was Librarian of the Class of 1781—thirteen years subsequent to the formation of the Society. This valuable relic contains a list of only 163 volumes, but those carefully selected, standard works. The Library was at that time kept in a private room, and jealously closed against all except members. A collection of the printed Catalogues, nearly if not quite complete, is to be found in the Library of the College. It appears from these, that from 1808 to 1825, the various Societies issued joint Catalogues. The number of volumes in the Brothers Library at various periods since 1808 is as follows:—1808, 723 vols.; 1811, 756 vols.; 1814, 860 vols.; Jan. 1818, 937 vols.; Sept. 1822, 1187 vols.; Nov. 1825, 1730 vols.; April, 1829, 2550 vols.; Sept. 1832, 3562 vols.; Jan. 1835, 4565 vols.; June, 1838, 6078 vols. It will be seen, from this table, that it has increased with much greater rapidity within the last few years than at any former period.

The present Catalogue differs in several respects from those which have preceded it. The list of authors has been very much increased—completed, so far as time would allow—and inserted in the body of the work. The whole has been rewritten, and in very many cases the titles of books given with greater distinctness. The index has also been rendered more perfect by the addition of three or four new divisions. Books can therefore be found almost invariably under the name of the author, usually also under the most prominent word of their own title, and finally under their appropriate subject in the index.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

1. During term time, the Library shall be opened, for the delivery of books, daily, Sundays excepted, from 1½ to 2 o'clock, P. M., unless when the books have been called in by previous notice.

2. Encyclopædias and unbound Periodicals may be retained from the Library one week; all other books two weeks, except when recalled, as above.

3. Books must be charged, in all cases, before they are taken from the room.

4. Four volumes only, may stand charged to the same name, at the same time.

5. Persons drawing books upon others' names, must state that they do it by their permission.

6. Books may be renewed once only, before returning to the shelves, and for this purpose must be brought into the Library.

7. During the time of drawing books, no person shall be allowed to pass behing the railing, except by special permission of the Librarian.

8. Books belonging to the Library shall not be taken out of the city of New Haven.

9. Smoking in the Library is strictly forbidden.

10. Members of other Societies in College may draw books from the Library, under the same regulations as Brothers in Unity.

PENALTIES.

1. Persons retaining books from the Library for a longer time than the above specified, shall be fined one cent per volume for every day of such retention.

2. When the books have been recalled by notice, the above fine shall be increased to ten cents per volume.

3. The fine for taking books from the Library uncharged, shall be twenty five cents per volume.

4. If books are seriously injured, or lost, the person to whom they are charged shall be held responsible to replace them, or to pay the cost of replacing them to the Librarian.

5. Persons neglecting or refusing to pay their fines shall not be permitted to draw books until their fines have been paid.

PREFACE.

The Linonian Society was founded in September, A.D. 1753. To the members of the Society of the class of 1769, and of the classes immediately following, we are indebted for the foundation of the Library. In the records of the Society at that time is found a vote of thanks to Timothy Dwight, Nathan Hale, and James Hillhouse, for the first contribution of books.

From the records and catalogues we are enabled to show the number of volumes at different periods. In 1770 there are stated to be nearly 100 vols.; 1780, 152 vols.; 1790, 330 vols.; 1800, 475 vols.; 1811, 724 vols.; 1822, 1187 vols.; 1831, 3505 vols.; 1837, 5581 vols.; 1841, 7500 vols.; The present Catalogue numbers 10,103 volumes.

It has been attempted to adapt the present Catalogue to general convenience. To this end it has been made as accurate and systematic as possible; each book is inserted under the name of the author, as far as could be ascertained, and again under the most prominent word of the title. The Classified Index will afford a view of the resources of the Library in the respective departments therein designated.
